

Consider the online option:

- for staff who are time-pressured or work irregular hours
- as an inexpensive screening tool for checking overall driving standards or as a KPI measure
- as a cost-effective way to roll out training to large branch networks

Managers can request Client Portal access to our system to monitor and manage all aspects of their trainees' training activities, including viewing reports, driving statistics and individual trainee performance.

What trainees say about our online courses:

"Being forced to review my driving habits was an eye-opener. I am now more aware of my environment and how to anticipate potential risk of harm while driving."

Philip Laubscher - Company Secretary: Mondi Limited

"A great experience. A worthwhile exercise. Gained awareness and changed thinking."

Errol Smith - Sales Manager: Eaton Electric

Driving.co.za is the only South African driving skills company which can offer proven online versions of its trainer-facilitated courses.
